Subject: Re: Apology Alliance: WA to apologise to the white stolen generation

Hi Chris,

I have just stopped crying!

Such good news. Congratulations to the ladies from Western Australia, and to you and to the Apology Alliance.

Please forward this on to all involved. I do not have Sue's email address (I don't think).

It is about time. We will be pushing hard here for Queensland to follow the example.

I have put it on the blog. Let me know if I need to add more.

Cheers for now

Marg and all the ALAS ladies.
